PUBLIC PROCUREMENT SYSTEM

The institutional system that rules public procurement is made of:

- ❖ The Public Procurement Regulatory Authority (PPRA) an independent administrative authority attached to the General Secretariat of the Presidency of the Republic; which mission is to ensure the regulation of public procurement system and public service delegation conventions
- ❖ The Public Procurement Central Directorate, an organ attached to the Ministry of Economy, Finance and Planning, and which a priori, ensures the control. It has five regional hubs, a priori in charge of the screening of the files of deconcentrated services.
- ❖ The public procurement cells and commissions housed at the level of the contracting authorities with the aim of carrying out public procurement procedures

The mission carried out by the PPRA and the a priori control of the Public Procurement Central Directorate respect the principle of separation of control and regulation functions.
